

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

JOHN LECHER-ZAPATA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

QBE INSURANCE CORPORATION,
a Wisconsin corporation, et al.,

Defendant.

4:19-CV-3053

ORDER

This matter is before the Court on the plaintiff's motion for a progression order. Filing 6. The plaintiff would like the Court to prematurely enter a progression order, because he's planning to travel to Mexico, where he lives.

But the defendants have not yet answered the plaintiff's complaint, and they have the right to do so or to file a motion pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12\(b\) before case progression commences. The plaintiff began this litigation, and will presumably need to pursue it from his place of residence at some point. In any event, it is the plaintiff's travel plans that will have to accommodate the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure—not the other way around.

IT IS ORDERED that the plaintiff's motion for a progression order (filing 6) is denied.

Dated this 20th day of June, 2019.

BY THE COURT:

John M. Gerrard
Chief United States District Judge
